3.3 Privacy

You are responsible for any consents and notices required to permit (a) Your use and receipt of the Services and (b) our accessing, storing, and processing of Your Content and Personal Data, under the Agreement.

4 The Cloudmore Marketplace and Third-party Products

The Cloudmore Marketplace allows Services as well as Third-party Products to be offered, bought, and managed. Products offered by a third-party seller are governed by the terms and conditions provided by such third-party seller and Cloudmore is not a party to the terms of any such Third-party Product. Upon ordering Third-party Products through the Cloudmore Marketplace, orders shall be effective immediately upon acceptance by the Third-party Product Seller.

For any Third-party Product, the third-party seller is the seller of record. Whilst Cloudmore may help facilitate the resolution of disputes between You and a Third-party Product seller, Cloudmore is not responsible for Third-party Products and We have no control over, and do not guarantee the quality, safety, or legality of items advertised, the truth or accuracy of Third-party Products or listings, or the ability of the seller to offer such Third-party Product. The respective Third-party Product sellers are responsible for providing You with support for their Third-party Product and Cloudmore will not provide any assistance or support in relation to Third-party Products.

4.1 Payment for Third-party Products

Cloudmore may bill You for some Third-party Products and You authorize Us, our Affiliates, and our payment processors to charge the payment method associated with Your Cloudmore account for such Third-party Products.

4.2 Sharing of VAT Data with Third-party Product Sellers

If You have provided Your value added tax (VAT) registration number to Us so that it can be applied to Your purchases, that information You provide with Your registration (including Your VAT registration number and the name and address associated with Your VAT registration) will be shared with the Third-party Product seller to the extent necessary for such Third-party Product seller to comply with VAT invoicing regulations and requirements.

5 Fees and Payments

5.1 Service Fees

The Service Fees and associated currency are set out in the Service Subscription Agreements.

5.2 Billing and Payments

You will pay Us the applicable fees and charges for use of the Services and any Third-party Products using one of the payment methods We support. The payment terms are provided in the Service Subscription Agreement. Cloudmore reserves the right to change the payment terms if Your account repeatedly becomes overdue. You are liable for any additional processing fees, exchange losses, and other charges that may apply in connection with Your payments and You will pay such additional amounts as are necessary so that the net amount received by Us is equal to the amount then due and payable under this Agreement.

5.3 Taxes

Our prices exclude applicable taxes unless identified as tax inclusive. Each party will be responsible, as required under applicable law, for identifying and paying all taxes and other governmental fees and charges (and any penalties, interest, and other additions thereto) that are imposed on that party upon or with respect to the transactions and payments under this Agreement. All fees payable by You are exclusive of Indirect Taxes, except where applicable law requires otherwise. We may charge and You will pay applicable Indirect Taxes that We are legally obligated or authorized to collect from You. You will provide such information to us as reasonably required to determine whether We are obligated to collect Indirect Taxes from You. We will not collect, and You will not pay, any Indirect Tax for which You furnish us a properly completed exemption certificate or a direct payment permit certificate for which We may claim an available exemption from such Indirect Tax.

All payments made by You to Us under this Agreement will be made free and clear of any deduction or withholding, as may be required by law. If any such deduction or withholding (including but not limited to cross-border withholding taxes) is required on any payment, You will pay such additional amounts as are necessary so that the net amount received by Us is equal to the amount then due and payable under this Agreement. We will provide you with such tax forms as are reasonably requested in order to reduce or eliminate the amount of any withholding or deduction for taxes in respect of payments made under this Agreement.

5.4 Overdue amounts

We may elect to charge You interest at the rate of 1.5% per month (or the highest rate permitted by law, if less) on all late payments from the payment due date until paid in full. You are responsible for all reasonable expenses incurred by Us in collecting such overdue amounts. Further, if Your payment for the Services is overdue, We may suspend the Services. A Service reactivation fee, as indicated in the Service Subscription Agreement, will be charged for reestablishing access to the Services after such a suspension.

6 Invoice Disputes and Refunds

6.1 Refund Policy

Unless otherwise provided by law, all purchases are final and non-refundable. If You believe that there is an error on Your Cloudmore invoice, You must submit a claim within 60 days to support@cloudmore.com, including all information necessary for Us to validate the claim, whereby We will promptly investigate the charge. If We have identified an error We will correct that error within 60 days.

No refunds will be given for any charges more than 60 days old, unless otherwise required by law. We reserve the right to issue refunds or credits at our sole discretion. If We issue a refund or credit, We are under no obligation to issue the same or similar refund in the future.

In such case we shall notify You of such change as early as possible.

7.2.2 Non-breaking changes to the API

For non-breaking change to a Service API, no notifications are sent to You, and instead, the change will be documented in the Cloudmore release notes.

7.2.3 API fair use

Our Service APIs are provided on a fair use basis, and We reserve the right to set and enforce limits on Your use of the Service APIs.

7.3 To the Service Fees

We may change the Service Fees from time to time. Changes to the Service Fees will become effective upon 30 days' notification at next Service Subscription Term renewal.

Changes to the Cloudmore Master Agreement and Service specific Service Level Agreements become effective at next Service Subscription Term renewal. We may update and amend the Cloudmore Data Processing terms from time to time as provided in the Cloudmore Data Processing Terms.

Use of the Services after any such change will conclusively be regarded as a general acceptance of such change. If You do not accept certain changes, You may terminate this Agreement, subject to the terms and conditions contained herein.
